Mission, Organization, Functions and Responsibilities

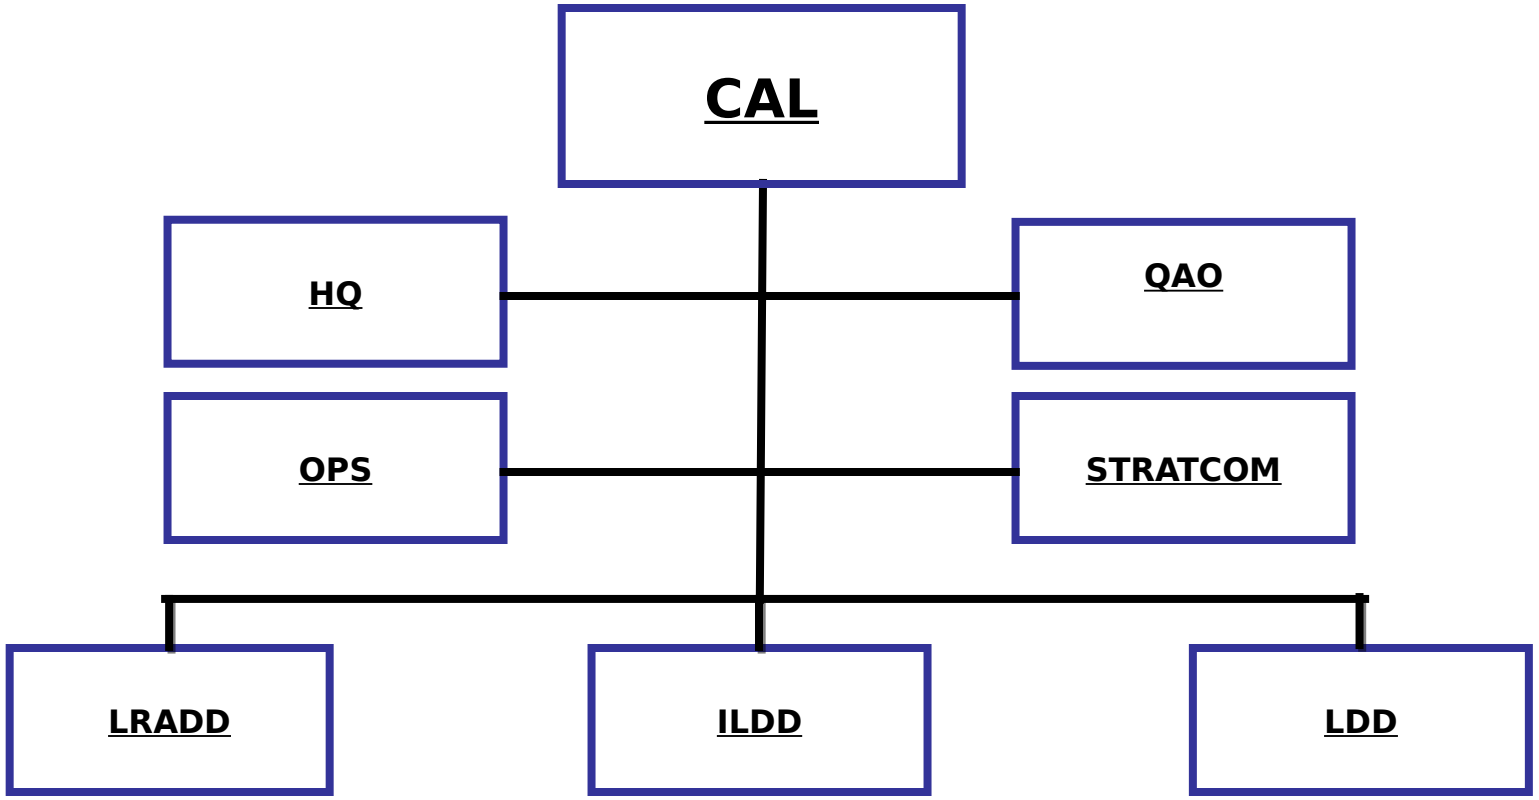
Combined Arms Center - Leader Development and Education

Center for Army Leadership (CAL)

CAL Mission

CAC-LD&E lead for leadership and leader development research, analysis, assessment and evaluation; leadership doctrine; coordination, development and management of CAC initiatives within the Army Leader Development Program; and the integration and synchronization of Professional Military Education (PME) and Civilian Education System (CES) to sustain excellence in growing Army leaders.

CAL Organization



CAL Responsibilities and Functio

1. CAC-LD&E lead for leadership and leader development.
2. Integrate and synchronize L-domain activities and requirements for CAC across DOTMLPF.
3. Evaluate leader development programs and concepts.
4. Design and develop leader development programs and concepts.
5. Coordinate, develop and manage CAC L-domain initiatives within the Army Leader Development Program.
6. Conduct research and analysis to identify, assess and develop leadership and leader development trends, requirements, strategies, practices and techniques.
7. Manage the vertical and horizontal integration and implementation of leader development training strategies across PME and CES.
8. Develop, maintain, and promulgate leadership doctrine.
9. Evaluate strategic guidance, policies, and plans for integration into leadership and leader development programs and concepts.
10. Manage and provide an assessment and feedback program to improve Army leader self-awareness and leadership development.

Questions